SCREEN Rules and Guidelines

To submit any of your work or your high school film department's work for Screen consideration, please read the following submission guidelines.

All films adhering to these guidelines will be eligible for consideration in this year's film festival, and will be watched by a panel of Pacifica student filmmakers, faculty, and advisors. Not all films submitted will be chosen for the festival. All accepted films will receive notification by Monday February 4th by phone and email. Screen Student Film Festival has a no-return policy for submitted material, and requests for returns are subject to the approval of the festival production committee. Screen Film Festival reserves the right to show any submitted film in its submitted form at the February 24th screening; alternate versions are subject to the approval of the production committee. Accepted films later shown to have disregarded or broken submission qualifications forfeit any and all titles or awards bestowed by the festival or its sponsors.

Submission Qualifications

- 1) Films must have been first shot and wrapped, edited, and completed between January 2011 and March 2012.
